THIS AND THAT. WATCH YOURSELF GO BY.

Just stard aside and watch yourself go by; Think of yourself as "he" in stend of "L" Note closely as in other men you note, The bag-knee trousers and seedy coaa. Pick flaws; find fault; forget the man is you, And strive to make the estimate ring true, Confront yourself and look you in the eyeyourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as though You looked on one whose aim you did not know

Let undisguised contempt surg through you when You see you shir', O con mo est of ment

Desp'se your cowardice; condem whate'er You note of falseness in you any where. Defend not one defect that shames your eye-Just stand aside and let yourself go by.

And when, with eyes unveiled to what you loathe-

To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe-Back to your self-willed tenements you'll go With tolerance for all who dwell below.

The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink, Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link-When you, with "he" as substitute for "I," Have stood aside and watched yourself go by. -- Ex.
